

Principal's Newsletter

Dear Christ the King Families,

I hope everyone had a great Thanksgiving and enjoyed time with family, and gave thanks for all the many blessings in our lives. Sometimes we get caught up in the things we do not have or events that have happened in our lives, but we must remember everything is a blessing and God will always provide. It is hard to believe that Saturday is December 1st and we're quickly approaching the Advent season. Good luck to all our 8th graders who will be taking their high school placement tests on Saturday. We only have 15 more class days until the end of the first semester! We can do it and all finish strong.

Winter Dress Code

I know it is getting cold and many kids think they are OK with only wearing a sweatshirt to and from school. However, this is a problem when they go outside. All students should have a winter coat, and girls should have sweats or pajama pants under their skirts when the temperature is below freezing.

When the students are in the classroom and are cold in their short sleeve shirt, they must wear the school-approved uniform. This includes a quarter zip fleece, sweatshirt (no hood), or a sweater. The first two items are purchased through Schoolbelles and have the CK monogram. Sweaters can be purchased anywhere, but all outerwear is red or blue. Spirit wear or team Christ the King team sweatshirts are not allowed. Please plan accordingly.

FACTS

There has been some confusion with FACTS and the incidental billing. These charges DO NOT come out automatically. You must go in and make the payment. The late fees that are assessed come from FACTS. Please be mindful of this as we continue to work out all the bumps in working with this new program.

Fundraising

I will be sending out a brief survey early next week to get feedback regarding our current magazine sale and our current fundraising model. Details to follow! Please be on the look-out for an email from me next week.

Parking Lot

I know that I address this at least a couple times each year; I guess it's time again. Please be mindful in the parking lot and model respect for your children. Parents are all here for the same purpose and want to see their children. It will go much faster and smoother when rules are followed and safety is prioritized. Please park only in designated spots and ones that are appropriate for you. The reserved spots are reserved for families who donated during the Main Event, and the handicap spots are for those who have the handicap sign in the rear view mirror. Mr. Urbanski and I should not have to stand out in the cold policing the lot after school. If there are further concerns or questions, please let me know.

Finally, tomorrow is a buck-a-jeans day. Students who bring in a dollar (for charity) may dress down.

Enjoy the week!

In Christ,
Mr. Joe Carroll

Purchase a book from our Preschool teacher and help support the CK Parents' Club !

Kelly Liettaert is our new 3-year-old preschool teacher, and also the author of two children's books. As an educator, she understands the importance of reading, and is thrilled to be able to offer her books for purchase. Kelly will donate 10% of her total sales to our Parent's club. These little books teach big lessons! Each book will be personalized with your child (or children's) name and signed by Kelly. Books can be picked up in the office the week of December 17th - perfect for Christmas gift giving!

Have you ever wanted to do something and were told you couldn't because you were too small? Sweet Lizzie understands your frustration. Read along and hear all about Lizzie's big plans and how her mommy inspires her to enjoy her life as it is today. As her eyes open to all of the fun things she can do right now, you will be encouraged, too. Choosing to be content is a great decision for everyone.

Have you ever had one of those days? Little Lizzie had a day full of fun planned, but then things started to go downhill. Follow along on each rhyming page and discover how being patient, asking for help, and keeping a positive attitude can make any situation better. We first met Lizzie in the book I WISH I WAS BIG - and she is back again to encourage us to make the right choices, even when we want to stomp our feet in frustration. A great reminder for every age!
