

Principal's Newsletter

Dear Christ the King Families,

It is hard to believe we are half way through September and we are at the midway point of the first quarter. Midterms will be coming home early next week for any student struggling in a particular subject. This is a good time to have a conversation with students about expectations and work ethic. If you have any questions, please reach out to the teachers so issues can be resolved before it's too late.

I will be in Washington DC next week with our eighth graders. We leave Sunday morning and return late Thursday night. Please keep us all in your prayers and be kind to Mr. Urbanski during my absence.

FACTS Payments

All extended day and milk payments must be paid by the end-of-day tomorrow. If you do not pay, a $40 late fee will be assessed to your account and other childcare accommodations will need to be made. If you have any questions, please call Mrs. Miller.

Low Income Forms

The federal government issues monies to non-public schools to assist with certain educational programs every year. In order to determine the amount we receive, we must have a signed low-income eligibility form from every family. I know that we have many families that do not qualify, but we must have a signed form from everyone. The form is coming home today in the brown envelope, so please fill out and return to the office tomorrow.

Tomorrow is buck-a-jeans day. All students who bring in a dollar may dress down.

*Don't forget to scroll all the way down so that you don't miss any of the announcements.

Enjoy your week!

In Christ,
Mr. Joe Carroll
